Adalbert and Catherine Zielinski lived in Gluszyn within the Byton Catholic Parish. Catherine's maiden name has not been determined.

Records during this time period did not always provide a surname. The best candidate record for their marriage took place in 1782. The bride and groom were named Adalbert and Catherine with the wedding listed under Gluszyn. If this is the correct record, it is reasonable to conclude that both were born around 1762, but the location of their births are unknown.

Records show that Adalbert and Catherine Zielinski may have had at least nine children, all born in Gluszyn:

Child	Birth	Notes
Lawrence Zielinski	1783	Baptism does not show a surname, but record is highly probable
Agnes Zielinski	1785
Paul Zielinski	1787	Died in 1788
Casimir Zielinski	1789
Magdalena Zielinski	1791
Margaret Zielinski	1795	Baptism does not show a surname, but record is highly probable
Rocco Zielinski	1798	Died in 1801 (Baptism has not been found)
Maryanna Zielinski	1803
Frank Zielinski	1805	Not sure if record shows Frank (son) or Frances (daughter). Died in 1806.

Their daughter Margaret Zielinski married Vincent Sawiński in 1815 in Byton. They are Michael E. Byczek's 4x-great-grandparents.

The death records for Adalbert and Catherine Zielinski have not been found.

Google Maps (Kuyavian-Pomeranian Voivodeship in north-central Poland):

- Bytoń is a village in Radziejów County. It is the seat of the gmina called Gmina Bytoń.
- Zgniły Głuszynek is a village in the administrative district of Gmina Topólka, within Radziejów County (Unclear if the same as Gluszyn from the time period. Current maps do show a location Gluszyn near Zgniły Głuszynek, but not with a description).

Michael E. Byczek has been compiling actual records for the Byton Catholic Church over the past ten or more years through direct messages to diocese archives, access to digitized microfilm, and online resources (i.e. digitalized records from Polish archives). He has gathered an extensive collection of documents. This compiled documentary is an accurate source of genealogy for Adalbert and Catherine Zielinski.
